- A conviction of a crime or an arrest will NOT necessarily result in a denial of this application.

- Do NOT rely on any representation or explanation that anyone else, such as an attorney, may have given you about whether an offense needs to be disclosed.
- It is important that you disclose ALL convictions so that the facts may be assessed accurately in evaluating this application.
- A failure to disclose required information may, by itself, cause a denial of this application, even if the undisclosed conviction would not have prevented your licensure had it been disclosed properly.
